Shipping

Shipping/Delivery cost will be for the purchaser account and the amount will be calculated via third party courier provider.

Costs for delivery may vary due to location and quantity of product purchased.

Although we endeavour to deliver products as soon as possible, delays may occur. No liability for loss or damage resulting from any delays for whatever reason is accepted and the purchaser shall under no circumstances be entitled to cancel the contract of sale as a result of any delays occurring.

Business hours for deliveries do not include Saturdays, Sundays, or public holidays.

Claims arising from damaged goods must be raised with courier provider?

Parcel sizes are of such that volumetric calculation will apply to determine delivery costs.

Consignments are charged on the greater of either the total actual mass, or total volumetric mass for items per waybill. The formula for calculating volumetric mass per item is dimensions divided by a volumetric factor. Dimensions: Length cm x Width cm x Height cm
Factor: 5000

Once order is confirmed and payment affected you will receive a shipment notification email once your order has shipped. The email will contain the tracking information.
